

Exchange Week for foreign visiting professors
8 - 12 April 2024
Iscte, Lisbon

---

Professor Weronika Szatkowska
University Kozminski University
Country Poland

Brief CV

---

Weronika Zuzanna Szatkowska, academic teacher in the area of simulation games and serious games for teaching business, economics, e-commerce, finance and management since 2021. Serious games designer and facilitator since 2017. Researcher and phd candidate at the Center for Simulation Games and Gamification, Department of Quantitative Methods & Information Technology. Kozminski University. Member and facilitator in International Simulation and Gaming Association - Games for Sustainability Group, member of Interactive Digital Narratives for Complexity Representation Research group (COST action).

On-going research topic

---

Application of simulations, serious games and simulation games for complexity representation in business, economics, social innovation and sustainability; modeling of social and socio-political systems.

Relevant publications

---

Between Urban Resilience and Serious Gaming: Applying Games for Policy Implementation W Szatkowska, M Wardaszko International Simulation and Gaming Association Conference, 223-238

The People: A Serious Role-playing Game Designed to Address a Humanitarian Crisis W Szatkowska International Journal of Role-Playing, 9-21

Enhancing Inclusion within Responsible Innovation Process through Serious Gaming WZ Szatkowska Media-Kultura-Komunikacja Społeczna 4 (16), 13-29

Topic of lecture for the students

---

Exploring sustainable futures in EN-ROADS simulation game

Outline of lecture for the students

---

In the seminar participants will explore the interconnections of policies in the area of energy supplies, transport, or industry, and the ongoing change in the world temperature. Together, participants will develop a scenario for sustainable transition that involves relevant policies in most the influential areas, considering the needs of developed and developing countries.